

I would stop sharing some sensitive information or talking about controversial topics in group chat because of privacy concerns about chatbots.

I would be concerned that any personal information I share in the group chat could be collected by the chatbot and be used inappropriately.

Chatbots from group chats with access to users' data as listed above would raise my privacy concerns.

